REX for Mayor Dillinger ... for Noblesville

February 25, 2003

Hamilton County Election Board
One Hamilton County Sq. Suite 106
Noblesville, IN 46060

Dear Board Members:

On the 2002 annual report for the Rex Dillinger for Mayor Committee, I listed an in-kind contribution from Century 21 Scheetz, Inc. for $4100.00. At the time I filed this report, I was unsure whether this truly was a campaign contribution under Indiana law or simply a business transaction with my employer. However, I felt it better to err on the side of caution and therefore I included the $4100.00 on the report. After discussions with Kathy Richardson and Dale Simmons, attorney for the Indiana Election Division, I realized this was not, in fact, a campaign contribution and should not have been included on the report. They both advise me to file an amended report in order to clear up this matter.

I also wanted to provide the Board with an explanation of where the $4100.00 figure came from to begin with. As a Realtor with Century 21 Scheetz, I pay office fees of $820.00 per month and receive 94% of any commissions I generate. Because I will be devoting a majority of my time from January to May, 2003 campaigning and would not be selling real estate as normal, I renegotiated my contract with Century 21 Scheetz. Under the new agreement, I do not pay the $820.00 per month fee but I also receive less commission on any transactions closed during this time. I reported the waiving of this fee ( $$820.00 \times 5 \text{ months} = $4100.00$ ) as an in-kind contribution and also as an expense on my 2002 annual report. This was an error on my part. You will find that I have amended this report to reflect these changes.

I hope this letter serves to clear up any confusion on this matter.

Sincerely:

Signature on File

Rex Dillinger
